Snow may cause some travel disruption over higher routes.

- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services

Further details

A band of rain will move eastwards across the UK during Thursday, with this likely to fall as snow for a time, particularly over hills.

Many places will see 1-2 hours of snow with a risk of temporary slushy accumulations above 100-150 m with snow leading to difficult travel conditions.

A longer period of snow is expected over higher ground with 2-5 cm likely above 200-300 m, and 10-15 cm above 400 m. Over higher routes, strong winds will lead to drifting and temporary blizzard conditions.
